

1 The scheme commits the authority:	What we do
1. To proactively publish or otherwise make available as a matter of routine, information, including environmental information, which is held by the authority and falls within the classifications below.
2. To specify the information which is held by the authority and falls within the classifications below.
3. To proactively publish or otherwise make available as a matter of routine, information in line with the statements contained within this scheme.
4. To produce and publish the methods by which the specific information is made routinely available so that it can be easily identified and accessed by members of the public.
5. To review and update on a regular basis the information the authority makes available under this scheme.	Annually, at the AGM
6. To produce a schedule of any fees charged for access to information which is made proactively available.
7. To make this publication scheme available to the public.

2 Classes of information
1. Who we are and what we do - Organisational information, locations and contacts, constitutional and legal governance	Website The Small Print Printed Policy documents
2. What we spend and how we spend it - Financial information relating to projected and actual income and expenditure, tendering, procurement and contracts.	Website The Small Print Printed Policy documents
3. What our priorities are and how we are doing - Strategy and performance information, plans, assessments, inspections and reviews.	Website The Small Print Printed Policy documents and Quality application
4. How we make decisions - Policy proposals and decisions. Decision making processes, internal criteria and procedures, consultations.	Website The Small Print Printed Policy documents
5. Our policies and procedures - Current written protocols for delivering our functions and responsibilities.	Website The Small Print Printed Policy documents
6. Lists and Registers - Information held in registers required by law and other lists and registers relating to the functions of the authority	Acceptance of office and agreement with code of conduct – by application to the clerk
7. The Services we Offer - Advice and guidance, booklets and leaflets, transactions and media releases. A description of the services offered.	Website The Small Print Printed Policy documents
8. The classes of information will not generally include - Information the disclosure of which is prevented by law, or exempt under the Freedom of Information Act, or is otherwise properly considered to be protected from disclosure; Information in draft form or that is no longer readily available as it is contained in files that have been placed in archive storage, or is difficult to access for similar reasons.

3 The method by which information published under this scheme will be made available
1. The authority will indicate clearly to the public what information is covered by this scheme and how it can be obtained.  “The Publications Scheme and all information that it covers is available on the website or by application to the Clerk.”	Website The Small Print And by public notice on the Notice Boards saying

2. Where it is within the capability of a public authority, information will be provided on a website. Where it is impracticable to make information available on a website or when an individual does not wish to access the information by the website, a public authority will indicate how information can be obtained by other means and provide it by those means.	As above
3. In exceptional circumstances some information may be available only by viewing in person. Where this manner is specified, contact details will be provided. An appointment to view the information will be arranged within a reasonable timescale.	As above
4. Information will be provided in the language in which it is held or in such other language that is legally required. Where an authority is legally required to translate any information, it will do so.
5. Obligations under disability and discrimination legislation and any other legislation to provide information in other forms and formats will be adhered to when providing information in accordance with this scheme.

4 Charges which may be made for Information published under this scheme
1. The purpose of this scheme is to make the maximum amount of information readily available at minimum inconvenience and cost to the public. Charges made by the authority for routinely published material will be justified and transparent and kept to a minimum.
2. Material which is published and accessed on a website will be provided free of charge.
3. Charges may be made for information subject to a charging regime specified by Parliament.
4. Charges may be made for actual disbursements incurred such as – Photocopying;  postage and packaging; the costs directly incurred as a result of viewing information	10 p/sheet b & w 40 p/sheet colour actual by arrangement
5. Charges may also be made for information provided under this scheme where they are legally authorised, justified (in all the circumstances, including the general principles of the right of access to information held by public authorities), and in accordance with a published schedule or schedules of fees which is readily available to the public.
6. If a charge is to be made, confirmation of the payment due will be given before the information is provided. Payment may be requested prior to provision of the information.

5 Written Requests
1. Information held by a public authority that is not published under this scheme can be requested in writing, when its provision will be considered in accordance with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act.

This statement is based on the Model Publication Scheme published by the Information Commissioner's Office in April 2008 in preparation for the enactment of the Freedom of Information Act on 1 January 2009. It was agreed by Stanford Parish Council at their meeting on 10 December 2008.